

Authorship Responsibility

Each author must read and sign following statement on authorship responsibility. Beginning January 1, 2008, authors will be required to identify each author's contribution to the work described in the manuscript. This statement of responsibility applies to all technical or scientific works but does not encompass stories told by individuals of their own personal experience of illness. Each author should return his or her signed form to the corresponding author, and the corresponding author should then fax all the forms, at once, to the editorial office: (623) 581-5977.
